This is an opportunity for all interested ACIPC members to become involved in the shaping and organisation of our next two international conferences being held in Canberra, ACT in 2017 and destination 2018 (still to be determined), as the Scientific Chair.

In becoming part of the conference scientific committee, as the chair, you will be mentored into the role by the current 2016 Scientific Chair. What we do need from you is:

1. Commitment and availability to attend teleconference meetings (minimum of monthly - dates flexible at this stage).
2. Enthusiasm and imagination in designing a conference program and schedule to meet the needs of the delegates attending ACIPC 2017 and 2018.
3. Ability to work proactively within the committee and with the appointed organiser to think outside the square and meet designated time frames.
4. Desire to get things done and provide a great platform for showcasing Infection Prevention and Control throughout Australasia.

Applications for the future chair of the scientific committee must meet the following criteria:

1. Recognised expertise in research, policy or clinical practice relevant to infection prevention and control with national/international standing in infection prevention and control
2. Recognized expertise in Infection Prevention and Control policy framing and implementation
3. Detailed understanding and experience in the peer review process
4. Previous experience on a scientific organising committee including preparation of conference programs
5. High level written and oral communication skills
6. Demonstrated high level conference presentations and papers
7. Capacity to think and act strategically
8. Understanding of and an ability to work and liaise with committee members
9. Excellent interpersonal and communication skills

Appointment will be for a term of two years to ensure consistency with the ongoing conference programs.

This expression of interest is open to all financial College members throughout Australasia. Why not think about it and give it a go!

Expressions of interest close on 11th July 2016.

We would love to hear from you.

For more information please contact: admin@acipc.org.au or call (07) 3211 4695.

The success of the College is dependent on engagement of the membership and your participation in our activities is vital to growth and innovation.